Further to my recent correspondence regarding the supply of school uniform to St Keyna Primary School and the indicated price increases that have been determined by the market, I forward the new price list that will come into implementation from today.

As previously stated, I may have to source from several brands to accommodate requirements of parents for the coming new year. The quality of product and service will be on par with what has been historically supplied. I am confident that things will come back to normal.

Should you wish to discuss any requirements in greater detail, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours sincerely
